Black History Month

"Walls of separation have been built up between the whites and the blacks. These walls of prejudice will tumble down of themselves as did the walls of Jericho, when Christians obey the Word of God, which enjoins on them supreme love to their maker and impartial love to their neighbors." —The Review and Herald, December 17, 1895

Lewis C. Sheafe: Apostle to Black America

Douglas Morgan

In this gripping biography, Douglas Morgan pieces together the life of this forgotten champion of racial equality—an evangelist whose campaigns drew standing-room-only crowds of both black and white listeners in Washington, D.C. us$22.99

The Enduring Legacy of Ellen G. White and Social Justice

Jonathan A. Thompson

Social justice. When do we as a church take a stand? At what point do the lines of spiritual intervention and social activism merge? Ellen White was a leader in many social issues, including antislavery and health reform, and the principles she espoused still apply to the Seventh-day Adventist Church today. us$24.99

From the Heart CD

Legacy

A dozen songs that will encourage and lift up listeners. Titles include "Stand By Me," "When the Saints Go Marching In," "Higher Ground," and more. Legacy is composed of former Heritage Singers and Breath of Life artists. us$11.97

They Called Him Rabbi: A Biography of Calvin E. Mosley Jr.

Mervyn A. Warren

Students called him "Rabbi." His eulogists crowned him "The Father of Preachers." As the first African-American chair of the religion department at Oakwood College (now University) and the first pastor of the Oakwood College Church, Calvin E. Mosley Jr. (1906–2001) shaped an entire generation of African-American preachers and believers. us$13.99

Gifted Hands

Ben Carson, M.D.

Dr. Ben Carson is known for his “gifted hands.” The inner-city kid who didn’t do well in school—and didn’t care—went on to become director of the pediatric neurosurgery department at Johns Hopkins University Hospital at age 33. Step into the operating room to witness surgeries that made headlines around the world, and into the private mind of a God-fearing physician who lives to help others. us$18.99 Hardcover us$6.99 Paperback

Beyond Defeat

James E. Johnson

Though he wore the uniform and defended his country abroad, at home Johnny faced the humiliation of segregation. And when others used the weapon of hate to keep him down, Johnny used the weapon of God’s Word and love to lift others up. Beyond Defeat proves that love is stronger than hate and that nothing is impossible with God. us$21.99

The Unknown Prophet

Delbert W. Baker

William Ellis Foy was an African-American minister of the nineteenth century whom historical records generally overlook. Foy received powerful revelations from God about a coming tribulation, judgment, and heaven awaiting those who were faithful to God. Foy’s message was straight-forward—be faithful, because Jesus is coming again! us$16.99

C. D.: The Man Behind the Message

Benjamin Baker, Harold L. Lee

With a 60-year ministry spanning the ghettos of the city, sands of the desert, and islands of the sea, C. D. Brooks has led more than 15,000 souls to Christ. From humble roots in the rural South at the beginning of the Great Depression to the internet age, this book gives readers a rare glimpse into the personal trials and triumphs of this modern apostle. us$17.99

Seasons of Love

13 Weeks to Love

Jennifer Jill Schwirzer

This easy read shows how to live God’s love and how doing so fulfills the purpose for which He created us. God is love and we, as His image bearers, possess the capacity for love. Through a relationship with Him, our damaged earthly relationships can be healed and strengthened. us$16.99

“Dear friends, let us love one another, because love comes from God. Whoever loves is a child of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.”
— 1 John 4:7, 8, GNT

Crafting Authentic Love:

A Family’s Guide to Healthy Relationships

Kay Kuzma

Learn practical and creative ways to keep your family’s love cups full to overflowing; learn to recognize the signs of a cup that is dangerously low so you can fill it before loved ones feel the pain of frustration, bitterness, anger, or rejection; and learn what you can do to keep the love in your own cup to the brim so it can splash over onto others. us$22.99

A Brief History of God’s Love

Jack J. Blanco

Discover the beauty of the greatest love story ever told as Dr. Jack Blanco, best-selling author of The Clear Word devotional paraphrase, distills the beauty of Ellen G. White’s 3,659-page Conflict of the Ages series into bite-sized chapters for today’s busy readers. Profound and beautiful, but simple enough to read with older children. us$19.99

Real Family Talk

Willie & Elaine Oliver

Meaningful and healthy relationships make for happy and productive people who contribute to the well-being of the home, church, and society. In Real Family Talk, the Olivers answer questions from real people with real problems just like yours on dating, doctrines, infidelity, parenting, and sex—anything and everything relating to relationships. us$13.99

The success of the gospel message does not depend upon learned speeches, eloquent testimonies, or deep arguments. It depends upon the simplicity of the message and its adaptation to the souls that are hungering for the bread of life. "What shall I do to be saved?" — this is the want of the soul. —Christ's Object Lessons, 231

Message, once called The Gospel Herald, began as a little paper produced by James Edson White in 1898. His idea was to minister to the first generation of emancipated former slaves who needed education, vocation, and spiritual uplifting. The little paper has turned into Message, an award-winning, bimonthly, 32-page religious journal that features uplifting interviews, thoughtful analysis of current events, and the prophetic voice of spiritual leaders.
